

Gospel Community Church

First Annual MINISTRY FAIR

SUNDAY, Jan 22nd

WE NEED YOU

As most of you know, Gospel “ministries” have always been volunteer based. It is our belief that each individual church member should bloom where he or she is planted. That means that if the Lord has planted you here in the Gospel vineyard, then you need to find a place, a ministry and use your talents for the Lord’s work.

For that reason we are having a Ministry Fair on Sunday, January 22nd immediately after the morning service, which will end 30 minutes early. During that time we ask all of the Gospel family to go through the Fellowship Hall and talk to each ministry represented there and volunteer for some aspect of the work going on at Gospel.

You might have reservations about what ministry you should enter into. So pray first, then, speak to the leaders of various ministries at the fair. Don’t allow the enemy to tell you that you can’t, when God says you can! Don’t be AWOL, show up – you will be blessed and be a blessing!

OUR MINISTRIES NEED YOUR HELP!

 Volunteers needed at every level of involvement, ***
from leadership to once-a-year participation.
